PCC

A Police Clearance Certificate (PCC) is an official document issued by the police or government agency of a country to certify that an individual has no criminal record or has not been involved in any criminal activity that resulted in a criminal conviction. This certificate is often required for various purposes such as immigration, employment, or residency in a foreign country. Here's a detailed explanation of what a PCC entails and its typical uses:

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `pcc.wb.gov.in/pcc-pending-application-form`. The browser's address bar and tabs are visible at the top. On the left, there is a dark sidebar menu for the 'Applicant Dashboard' with options: Dashboard, New Application, All Applications, Approval Pending (highlighted), Payment Pending, Certificate Issued, and Rejected Application. The main content area features a 'From Date' input field, a 'Show' dropdown set to '10', and a table with one row containing the number '1'. A large teal modal window titled 'Your Document' is overlaid on the page, displaying a document from the Government of West Bengal. The document includes a UDIN (24-S-SA001218-P-1719813295041), a QR code, and a red 'SAMPLE' stamp. Below the document, a table lists application details with columns for 'Photo' and 'View'. The 'View' column contains a blue eye icon. At the bottom of the page, there is a pagination control with 'Previous', '1', and 'Next' buttons. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the time as 10:00 on 10-07-2024.
